Living and working in Nottinghamshire

Nottinghamshire is the 11th largest local authority in England, stretching from Nottingham City to the borders South Yorkshire, Lincolnshire, Derbyshire and Leicestershire.

Nottinghamshire is in the centre of the country, with excellent transport links including the M1 and A1 motorways and East Midlands Airport. With great rail services you can travel by train to central London in 1 hour 32 minutes.

“It can sometimes sound a little cliché when someone says how much they enjoy their job and how rewarding it is, but in my opinion, care work really is! Not only is it rewarding but it also gives you a huge sense of purpose, knowing that the people you are supporting are cared for and all their needs are met. Supporting people within a care service is a ‘job’, but I don’t look at it in that way. I like to go home at the end of my shift knowing that I have made a difference to someone’s day”
