Applicants Please Note

When completing your application form you must ensure you address and make comment on the 13 criteria. The Panel will short list solely against these elements. If you have not covered these essential criteria requirements in enough depth you will not be included on the short list of candidates.

You need to carefully consider how you can meet the essential criteria, please give examples. For instance, it is not sufficient to state “I have knowledge of safeguarding issues”. The panel will expect you to write a statement identifying the range of safety issues you have to consider when children and young people live in a residential setting, and how you would work with other professionals to keep children safe and secure. It may be helpful for you to research this area of the person specification before you fill in the application form if your work or other setting hasn't given you experience of this. Give examples etc. to help you focus and frame your statements in each area.

It may be helpful for you to head each paragraph of your application form with these 13 essential criteria.
