Data protection notice

Throughout this form we ask for some personal data about you. We'll only use this data in line with data protection legislation and process your data for one or more of the following reasons permitted in law:

- You have given us your consent.
- We must process it to comply with our legal obligations.
- We need to process it for our legitimate interests.

To find more information on our legitimate interests and how we use your personal data click on the link to view our privacy notice or go to our website: <https://www.flyinghighpartnership.co.uk/privacy-notices>

Application forms will be stored on our system for a period of up to 6 months before being deleted. Your application form will be shared with the recruitment panel and held with the HR Department.

Declaration

As you are returning your application form to us by email, we will take your email correspondence as a signature on this form. You will be agreeing to the following:

I declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information given on ALL parts of this form is correct. I understand that, should my application be successful, and it is discovered subsequently that information has been falsified, then action may be taken which may include dismissal from the post.

*If I am successful at securing employment with Flying High Trust, I will provide the appropriate documentary evidence in accordance with safer recruitment prior to commencing work. This includes either a basic or enhanced DBS check which I give consent to as part of this application.

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. The post you are applying for is 'exempt' from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore, you are required to declare any convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that are not 'protected' (i.e., filtered out) as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013). The amendments to the Exceptions Order provide that certain 'spent' convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. If you are successful at the shortlisting stage, you will be requested to complete a criminal records declaration form. It is advised that you review the following guidance so that you only declare what you need to declare by law. DBS guidance and NACRO guidance.

Please return your completed form by email to office@greythorn.notts.sch.uk by the closing date. If you have not received a reply within the next 6 weeks, you should assume that your application has been unsuccessful.

Many thanks for your interest in becoming part of the Flying High Team, we wish you all the very best.

Vacancy information

Where did you first hear about this job?

Disclosure and Barring and childcare disqualification

The Flying High Partnership is legally obligated to process a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check before making appointments to relevant posts. The DBS check will reveal both spent and unspent convictions, cautions, and bind-overs as well as pending prosecutions, which aren't "protected" under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975. We'll use the DBS check to ensure we comply with the Childcare Disqualification Regulations. Any data processed as part of the DBS check will be processed in accordance with data protection regulations and the Trust's privacy statement.
