Do you want to work with an inspiring and creative team?

Hillside Primary could be the school for you! We are looking for an exciting and dynamic teacher to not just teach, but to inspire children. Someone who has high expectations and a desire to ensure all children become the best versions of themselves.

The successful candidate will:

- be passionate about children reaching their full potential.
- have a comprehensive knowledge of teaching and learning.
- be a reflective practitioner striving to deliver the best lessons every day.
- builds excellent relationships with the children, staff and wider community.
- be creative, energetic and have a sense of fun!
- enjoy being part of a team and fully participates in school life.

If you can say "that's me" to all of the above, we would like to meet you.

In return we offer:

- Friendly, kind and enthusiastic children
- A nurturing ethos that values everyone and celebrates success.
- An environment where initiative is encouraged and ideas valued.
- Professional development from the start of your carers through to leadership including engagement in Trust networks, NPQs and opportunities to work in partnership and share best practice.
- Close partnership working with rich career opportunities across the schools of the Flying High Trust.

Hillside is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. The post is subject to an enhanced DBS check.
