

Person Specification for: Class Teacher Vacancy

Essential	Desirable
Degree Qualified Teacher Status	Experience of mixed age classes
Proven ability as an excellent classroom teacher	Proven experience of leading innovative work in a school
Knowledge of inclusion and strategies for engaging all learners	Proven record of effective subject leadership
Ability to work closely as a member of a team	Open minded, self-evaluative and adaptable to changing circumstances and new ideas
A thorough knowledge of the National Curriculum	Willingness to be involved in the wider life of the school
A commitment to continuing professional development	An enthusiasm to enrich the curriculum through out of hours learning and educational visits
Ability to make use of available data to analyse the performance of pupils and set appropriate targets
Understanding of assessment for learning and its use to raise standards
Knowledge and experience of applying technology across the curriculum
Excellent organisational and interpersonal skills
Use of positive behaviour management skills
Clear understanding of how children learn and awareness of effective teaching strategies for personalised learning
Understanding of current safeguarding legislation and a commitment to implementing the necessary procedures in school
When all the above fail, to maintain a good sense of humour, a willingness to learn and the will to continue to strive for excellence	