5 Additional Information in support of your application

Please give details of any relevant experience, skills or knowledge to support your application. Be concise but make sure that you cover all the essential points of the person/employee specification. NOTE: Your response to this section is extremely important and will be the basis of the short-listing panel's decision to invite you for interview.

6 References

Please provide details of two referees below. Friends and relatives are NOT acceptable referees. One of the referees must be your present/or most recent employer and normally no offer of employment will be made without reference to him/her. If you have not previously been employed, then Head Teachers, College Lecturers, or other persons who are able to comment authoritatively on your educational background, suitability for the post and/or personal qualities, are acceptable as referees.

The employer also reserves the right to approach any other previous employer or manager. If you are not currently employed as a Teacher, if you do not name your last school as a referee, a reference will be sought from the school, college or local authority at which you were last employed in a teaching position. Please note references will be taken up on shortlisted candidates prior to interview, and an opportunity will be given to discuss the content of references with the interviewing panel.

7 Health / medical details

The preferred candidate will be required to complete a confidential medical questionnaire and may be required to undergo a medical examination. Details of sickness absence records for the previous two years will be requested from your current and where applicable employer. For successful applicants, details of your sickness absence will also be requested from your employment referee.

8 Disclosure of criminal background

1. DBS - As you are applying to work as a teacher an enhanced DBS check is required, please disclose any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not “protected” as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013).

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are ‘protected’ and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. All guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found in the DBS filtering guidance

Following the completion of the interview process, if you are the preferred candidate, you will be required to complete an online electronic Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) application form. A link to the online DBS form will be sent to you by email.

If you have queries about the DBS check, or would like a copy of the DBS Code of Practice, please contact the Business Support Centre, tel: 0115 977 2727 (Option 1, Option 3) or visit the DBS website: www.gov.uk/disclosure-barring-service-check

2. Other checks – As a school based employee, if you are the preferred candidate, you will be required to undergo other statutory pre-employment checks as necessary. For example a

11 Data Protection Act

In providing the personal information in support of your application, you agree to the employer processing this personal information for the purposes of managing your application and for the performance of any contract of employment that may be entered into. We will not be able to process your application without this information. If successful, your personal information will be retained whilst you are an employee and used for payroll, pension and HR related administration. Your personal information will be retained in accordance with the employers HR retention schedule.

The personal information provided will not ordinarily be disclosed to anyone outside of the organization without first seeking your permission, unless there is a statutory reason for doing so. However, the employer is under a duty to protect the public funds it administers and to this end may use the information you have provided on this form for the prevention and detection of fraud. The employer may also share this information with other bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds for these purposes, or in the event it is required to disclose your information by law or for the purposes of exercising its legal rights. Where the employer uses external providers to manage some of its personnel and payroll systems and personal information (including sensitive personal data) may be processed by these providers. Some of these providers may be based overseas, including countries which are outside the European Economic Area. When using overseas providers, we will ensure that procedures and technologies are put in place to maintain the security of all personal data which is processed by them.

You have the right to request a copy of the personal information we hold about you or to request that your information be corrected or deleted (although we cannot promise this will always happen). If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal information, you can contact our Data Protection Officer who will investigate the matter. Nottinghamshire County Council Equality in Employment Statement

This part of the application form will NOT be used to shortlist candidates for interview and will NOT be viewed by the Recruitment panel.

The school together with Nottinghamshire County Council or Trust (if applicable), together with the recognised Trade Unions and self-managed workers groups where appropriate, is committed to the development of positive policies to promote equal opportunities in employment and in the delivery of our services, regardless of race, disability, gender, belief or religion, age, pregnancy and maternity, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership or sexual orientation. This commitment will apply to recruitment and selection practices, training and promotion, in the application of national and local agreements, in respect of pay and conditions of service and in the provision of all services. A key aim of this policy is to make sure that applicants for jobs are not discriminated against. The policy also aims to make sure that you are not disadvantaged by job conditions or requirements that are not relevant

Our workforce profile data is collected against categories which are determined through the National Census of the UK population. The categories on this form reflect those which the Office for National Statistics advises are likely to be used in the next census.

In order to monitor and ensure the successful development of this policy, all applicants for jobs are requested to complete the Equality and Diversity Monitoring information detailed below and overleaf.
